PROBLEM STATEMENT

Students feel demotivated, socially segregated, insecure about the future and pressurized in this online mode of education because of the unavailability of the right application which would compile the work and ease the process of learning, both teachers and students are facing great difficulties to coping up in this online mode of education. The chaotic nature of online education combined with the isolation caused by the pandemic have been severely ignored by the application designed to “just conduct online classes”. This have led to many issues in the students like depression, anxiety and confusion. Online classes are being held for the sake of students don’t miss a year in life but they are not looking at the aspect of whether the student is really understanding the concept or not.

SOLUTION STATEMENT

This application is designed in a way to lower the pressure and make the process of learning in the online mode of education to be more interesting for both teachers and the students. We have taken various surveys and interviews to know the feedback of the educational apps they are using and most of the responses the user was not satisfied

So how does ED_EZ is different from the others and how does it provides solution?

- In our prototype when a user enters the home screen everything is arranged in a systematic and ordered manner which would have a positive impact on the users. This would provide users with a good compilation and help reduce frustration levels.
- Many students have to set reminders of deadlines separately but, in our prototype, they do not have to do extra work because important notifications are shown on the home screen only.
- Considering the social life of students and teachers, we have added a unique feature called social interaction because the social life of most students had been destroyed in the online mode of education. This feature would help them interact with their peers more and take part in various events which have been organized by their institution. Thus, making students more socially active also would help to reduce their stress levels.

USER FEEDBACK

ISSUED FACED: notification bar can be added to side bar menu

ISSUE FACED:Scrolling horizontally is not intuitive

A horizontal scroll bar should be present at the bottom

swipe right to see all the subjects and then press on them to see the deadlines and quiz for that subject

ISSUE FACED:Icons in the side bar menu are not in order and looking messy .

SOLUTION: cons should be present on the left side of the screen .

TASK FLOW

Click on the side bar menu to view various options

CHAT PORTAL

USER FEEDBACK

ISSUE FACED: the color combination of the chat portal is giving out a dull appearance to the user.

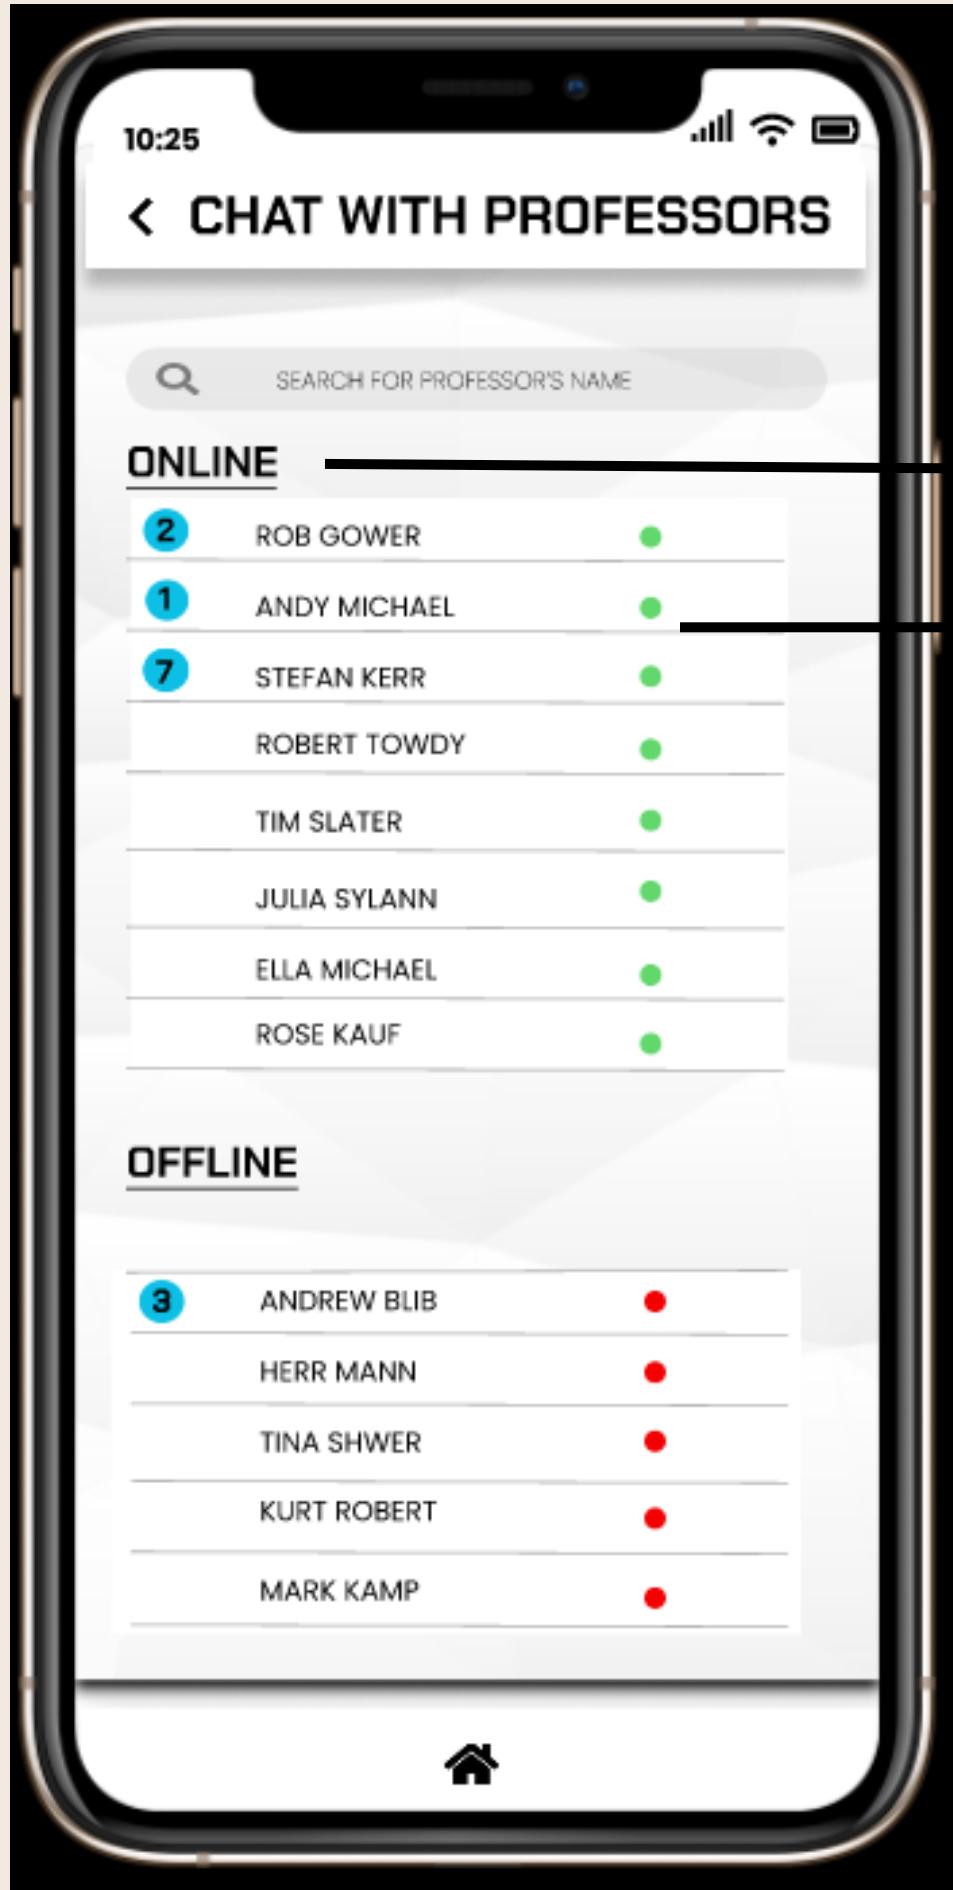

SOLUTION: other light colored and attractive background can be used to give an effective look

TASK FLOW

click on to any option as per your preference to chat with respective categories

CHAT PORTAL

USER FEEDBACK

ISSUE FACED: No use of headlines under offline and online section and even mention of that section as the green color and red color generally signifies it.

SOLUTION: make the chat like the major apps such as whatsapp facebook, discord, etc

ISSUE FACED: the chat portal isn't very interactive. it just has feature were you can only read and text back to the other person.

SOLUTION: Make the app more interactive and user friendly and more feature such as calling and clearing the chat.

TASK FLOW

Press on any chat and then will take to the screen you chat with that person and you can type your messages and interacted with that person

TASK PLANNER TAB

USER FEEDBACK

ISSUE FACED: Suddenly the colour theme become purple in color and does not match the apps color theme.

SOLUTION: Color scheme should be there throughout the app and should be consistent

TASK FLOW

In Task Handler you can select todays calendar to go to the calendar page where all your classes link are already present.

When you go to Task planner you can plan your tasks which you would like to complete in a week or a day by pressing add task in the bottom
